

New directions in Italian-Australian Research Collaboration

Are you an Italian undertaking postgraduate studies, post-doctoral work or study leave in Australia?

Are you an Australian researcher, postgraduate student or academic who is working with Italian collaborators or whose project involves significant work in Italy?

This is a night you should attend to meet fellow researchers who share a common link and bond between Italy and Australia. It is an excellent opportunity for networking. The event is hosted by the Association for Research between Italy and Australasia (ARIA). Drinks and light supper provided.

Time and date: Thursday, July 1st, 6.30 pm

Place: CO.AS.IT, 189 Faraday Street, Carlton, Victoria

Guest Speakers: Professor Ray Cas – Professor of Volcanology and Head of School of Geosciences, Monash University
 Professor Pasquale Sgro – Associate Dean (Research), Faculty of Business and Law Deakin University
 Professor Oscar Moze – Scientific Attache', Embassy of Italy, Canberra

All the speakers have significant research interactions and links with Italy
